

Introducing KPMGCF's New U.S. Healthcare Investment Banking Team

KPMG Corporate Finance LLC (KPMGCF) is pleased to announce the hiring of Chris Mercier, Managing Director and Head of Healthcare Investment Banking and Sean Sullivan, Director in Healthcare Investment Banking. Based in KPMG's Chicago office they will team together and focus on further developing KPMGCF's Healthcare Investment Banking practice. Their primary focus will be on advisory engagements related to mergers and acquisitions, capital raises, strategic reviews, and financial restructurings.

Prior to joining KPMG, Chris served as a Managing Director and Head of the Healthcare Investment Banking Group at Duff & Phelps Securities, LLC. Before that, he worked as an associate at Harris Williams & Co., where he managed deal processes for M&A, debt and equity financing transactions and as a director of Network Development at North Shore-LIJ Health System, one of the nation's largest integrated healthcare networks.

Chris earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy and English at the University of Massachusetts and a Master of Business Administration degree from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College.

Prior to joining KPMG Corporate Finance, Sean worked in the investment banking departments of Duff & Phelps Securities, LLC (NYSE:DUF) and Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. He also worked for several years in the Corporate Development department of a past client, Andrx Corporation, a manufacturer and distributor of specialty/generic pharmaceuticals with annual revenue of over $1 billion.

Sean holds a B.S. in Commerce/Finance from the McIntire School of Commerce at the University of Virginia.

"We know that the combined experience of Chris and Sean will evoke tremendous growth and opportunities for further developing our Healthcare Investment Banking practice," said Phil Isom, Head of KPMG Corporate Finance LLC.
